Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 19, 26 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 19, line 13, there is a lack of antecedent basis for the dispenser orifice. It is unclear if it is the same structure as the dispenser opening.

2. Claims 20-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The fixed position of the orifice with respect to the second part and the surface onto which the material is disbursed are new matter as there is no basis for these features in the original disclosure.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 2, 4-11, 13, 14 and 16-27, as best understood are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Stull '146.

Stull shows a first part 22 having a first surface seen in Figure 8; second part 24 having a second surface seen in Figure 8; opening 30, 36; there must be a small distance between the surfaces or the cap would not rotate; gap 38, 30; sector seen in Figures 1 and 5; top wall 40; opening 38 having an edge; end wall 41 having an edge; the orifice is eccentric on the top wall as seen in Figure 1; the surfaces are concentric as seen in Figure 6; extension as the top part of 22; closed top closed by cap 32; lateral opening 30; inner skirt 34; chamber as the opening 30, 36; axis of rotation seen in Figure 6; neck 22; a slight inclination/slope is inherent as a perfectly nested structure would be impossible; stops 42, 43; there are no check valves; the device is made of plastic as noted in column 4, line 30; sunscreen/lotion is a cosmetic which is discussed in column 3, line 9; part of the orifice (38) is in a fixed position on (i.e. independent of) the second part and the top surface of 40 would disperse some of the dispensed material.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 3, 12 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stull.

Stull has been discussed above, but lacks the spacing being less than .5 mm, the rotation being a half turn, and the different colored plastics. It would have been obvious to make the spacing between the surfaces less than .5 mm in order to allow for rotation of the parts relative to each other while not permitting product to get between. The rotation being a half turn would have been obvious as the amount of rotation could be set to any distance that would permit for complete opening and closing of the outlet. Finally, the different colored plastics would have been obvious as aesthetic considerations are important in marketing a product.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 5/2/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant contends that the two parts of Stull do not create an orifice that opens out to the environment. Clearly, 30 and 36 open to the environment when aligned with 38, and therefore, the claimed limitations are met.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

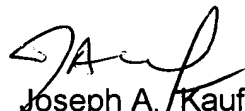

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
